RCM Alt: -

Good afternoon family I will be attending the two a day event this coming weekend with butch via zoom. Other than that I have nothing new to report. Thank you for letting me serve.

ILs,

Kurt d.

VRCC Director:

Good afternoon all,

The VRCC met on the third Sunday of March 2021. Currently the VRCC is accepting bids for prospective hosts for the 40th AVCNA to be held in January 2023. Guidelines and procedure for submitting bids can be found on avcna.org under the About Us link in the menu. The deadline to receive bids is the end of this month, and all bids will be presented to the VRCC body at our May meeting.

The Shenandoah area, who are hosting the 39th AVCNA scheduled for January 2022, is hard at work completing planning for this event. Our body is working closing with the host committee to ensure prudent planning of this long-awaited convention.

The VRCC chair continues to report the VRCC business to the region and has been present at the regional committee meeting. Also, we have an ad hoc policy committee in place which continues to review VRCC policy. A new policy chair, Norman C., was elected at our March meeting.

Two positions continue to be vacant on the VRCC executive committee: Website chair and Vice-Treasurer. Nominations or volunteers can be presented at our May subcommittee meeting.

The New Dominion alternate Director, Erin M., was also in attendance at the March VRCC meeting.

In loving service,

Kelly M.

VRCC Alt Director:

Bids are coming due at VRCC for the 40th AVCNA. If this is something the area would like to participate in, we will need to know so that we can gather bids to submit for our next VRCC meeting in May. If a motion has not been submitted to go back to HG's, I will submit.

ILS,

Erin M.

Subcommittee Reports:

Campout:

No news at this time. We haven't been able to do much because of COVID-19. We are waiting to hear from someday who will allow us to have a campout.

ILS,

Bill S.

Hospitals & Institutions:

All is well with H&I, we met today at 2pm on Zoom. We have just recently started carrying a meeting into a new facility, Hallmark Youth. It is a juvenile rehab that is Co-Ed. We are in need of willing participants to serve and share their experience, strength, and hope. Ideally younger participants. If you are interested please contact me, and please share at your homegroups. My contact information will be provided in the minutes. The next time H&I subcommittee will meet will be June 13th. I am unsure if it will be on Zoom or in-person, but I will make sure to report next month the decision on that. Thank you for letting me serve.

In Loving Service,

Tina S

Literature:

I have the orders for today. A note for next month, I have a vacation before area. I will be here but won't be able to respond to text messages and requests until Sunday. If that's a problem, let me know.

ILS,

Stacey T.

Policy:

In loving service,

Public Relations:

All is well in PR,

The phone line had 9 calls to speak to a volunteer, 12 meeting searches, and 17 calls to hear the jft. Website and phone line traffic has increased.

The new television ads with the updated phone number are up and running. We are preparing to do a virtual multizonal PR event for PR week this year. Currently, Unified PR in our area is gathering emails for a blast campaign to doctors, judges, and drug courts with information about NA.

The regional archive project is looking for any NA memorabilia from the past: meeting lists, convention pamphlets, speaker tapes, etc. If you have anything, please contact Richard S. at gutterwall@gmail.com

Thank you,

Emily N
