Executive Committee Reports:

Chair: All is well. I attended another zoom meeting with the VADOC, a liaison about carrying the message into VA prisons. More to come.

ILS,
Allison R.

Vice-Chair: All is well.

ILS,
Christian F

Secretary: I am pro-temping as secretary this month. Thanks for allowing me to serve.

ILS,
Tina S. (for Chrissy R.)

Treasurer: The Regional Donation for the month is $2,784.41.

ILS,
Eric

Vice-Treasurer:

No report

RCM: I want to apologize to the folks who showed up to help me with the issue that is going on at Region for not showing up as NDANA. With the help of Bill M. a letter has been composed to get the support of NDANA to be taken to Region. The way I understand RSC policy is they can only be removed from roll call and not the region. Our next RSC is on the 21st and I will be there to bring up this matter.

Bill assisted me in drafting a letter to present to region basically calling them out on violating their own policy. I will be bringing this up in open forum to move it to new business and read the letter on the floor (this way it will be in the minutes). I will be asking for a vote today from NDANA to approve the letter stating that it is from NDANA and not just me. This way I feel the letter will carry more weight. The main intent is to not have the areas removed from region or the phone line.

ILS,
Butch N.

RCM Alt: - All is well. Nothing to report. Will be attending regional zoom meeting on August 21st.

ILS,
Mark C.

VRCC Director: All is well with the VRCC. The Sherana Region continues to plan the 39th AVCNA. They could use volunteers on their various subcommittees. Their contact info is on the 39th AVCNA flyers.

[Type here]

The VRCC held their annual retreat in July. We continued to review the VRCC policy and assisted Sherana in a convention fundraising event. The CRVV is contacting our lawyer about changing our policy regarding allowing directors attend VRCC from areas no longer consider part of the Region.

The issues with convention registration on the AVCNA website have been fixed and we have some flyers available.

ILS,

Kelly M.

VRCC Alt Director: Hello all. I'm unable to attend today as our AC is out and we are installing window nits for the time being. Kelly and I attended the VRCC retreat, which was wonderful. Several policy changes were made and several kinds with the upcoming convention were sorted out. IT was fun getting to know others. I was asked to find out about flyers. Kelly and I both have some to be disbursed amongst homegroups. I was also asked to look into an issue with the PayPal account connected to registration. We thought the problem has been fixed as of that weekend, if you are still having trouble let Kelly or me know.

P.S. We got stuck in a torrential downpour for a little over an hour and then came back to no power in the motel Saturday night. Nonetheless, all had a good time. Thanks for letting me serve.

ILS,

Erin M.

Subcommittee Reports:

Campout:

We had a great turnout and event! We had 50 campers and 38 day off participants for Saturday. All had fun and those who were hungry were fed. We had 78 addicts around the campfire Saturday night. We made our money for reservations and food and supplies. With a profit of $35, $400 was given for such and we are able to return all the money. Totally money going back to area is $435.00. Thanks to the committee and all who participated.

ILS,

Bill S.

Hospitals & Institutions:

All is well with H&I. At the moment we have 4 meetings open, the Healing Place, Chesterfield Jail men and women's, and Hallmark Youth. James River Juvenile is in the works and will hopefully be meeting come September. I have heard back from the State doc and they are coordinating as of now when we can return to carry the message. There will be safety protocols in place, covid testing, etc. Today we elected Sam B. as Facilitator to the Healing Place.

[Type here]

Also, if there is any important information that needs to be emailed to H&I please email to ndanahni@gmail.com.

I reported last month that I was working with the Richmond Area H&I and Vice Chair on virtual meetings. When we met on zoom last month, they allowed us to know that they will not allow that at the state level. So what I have done is tasked our Facilitator for Henrico Jail men's meeting to find out if we can hold a virtual meeting there. Hope to hear back and will share next month the outcome.

We are in need to service members. Secretary and Policy Chair need nominations.

Thank you for allowing me to serve.

ILS,
Tina

Literature:

All is well with literature. A few missing items. I left a note in orders of what was missing. I will contact you for delivery once it comes in.

ILS,

Stacey T.
