ILS,

VRCC Director:

In addition to emailed report –

The cost for registration has gone up as of this month to $40. There was an issue with booking rooms Thursday – Sunday. The online booking for the hotel was reporting that there were no rooms available. We are working with them to fix the problem.

The VRCC met for our bimonthly meeting on September 18, 2022. We approved several bids from the AVCNA host committee, including the DJ, the sign language interpreter and the registration packets. Bids were proposed for merchandise; however, they required more bids than were presented. The host committee also presented a rough idea of what food options could like in leu of a hospitality room. They too need more information from the hotel. We will be reviewing these bids as the information is gathered and will likely vote via email prior to our next meeting in November.

Discussion was had regarding possibly not holding a convention in the year of 2023. There was interest from one area mentioned, however, bids were due earlier in the year. Given the state of funding now available and the fact that other areas are hosting their own annual conventions, it may be financially prudent for us to table the 41st. As I'm sure you can imagine, this garnered some rather emotional discussion. As such, we decided to use the next few weeks to reflect, speak with our sponsors and networks, as well as our respective areas before making a final decision m. We will address this at our next business meeting as well.

Regardless of the precarious situation the VRCC currently finds itself in, the 40th looks like it is going to be amazing! The host committee has done very impressive work and is super excited to be hosting a milestone convention such as the 40th. A good time will be had by all, come out to VA Beach and support them!

ILS,
Erin M.

VRCC Alt. Director:

Hello ASC,
All is well. She does not have anything to add that the VRCC Director didn't cover.

ILS,
Ginny T.

ILS,
Ben F.

Hospitals & Institutions:

Hi Family,
All is well with H&I. Tina and myself met with Tri-Cities H&I, ECCNA, and Regional PR Chair to look into carrying virtual H&I meetings into all of the State D.O.C. Facilities. Our sub-committee voted today to pursue this. I think it is a great thing. We are currently serving eight facilities in our area. Always looking for trusted servants. We meet before area service every month at 2pm at Hatcher in the smaller room. Keep your ears open for our Unity Day coming up in the near future.

ILS,
Bryan M.
