1) ASC can approve reimbursement money requested by any trusted servant who has original receipts.

2) ASC can approve reimbursement money requested by a subcommittee with original receipts.

3) A Money Matter Motion Form must be used to request reimbursement. b)

Guideline Motion is used to change any item listed in the guidelines section of the Guidelines and Procedures that may affect the area's service structure and delegation of authority by the groups.

1) Guideline motions must be sent back to home groups for a group conscience, and the GSRs will bring back to the area floor a closed ballot yes or no vote. This vote will determine the group's collective conscience on the issue, which represents the area's conscience on the motion.

2) A Guideline Motion Form must be used to write a motion, including the intent.

c) Procedure Motion is used to change any item listed in the procedures section of the Guidelines and Procedures that will affect the day-to-day operations of the Richmond Area Service Committee of NA (RASCNA).

1) A simple majority is needed to pass a procedural motion.

2) The motion takes effect immediately when passed.

3) A Procedure Motion Form must be used to write a motion, including the intent.

2. Voting on motions:

a) A quorum is not required to conduct business at ASC.

b) Procedure motions require a simple majority (1/2 the votes plus 1 vote) to pass on the area floor.

c) Guideline motions require two-thirds (2/3) of the votes to pass on the area floor.

3. How votes count and types of votes:

Yes - the member/group agreed with the motion.

No - the member/group disagreed with the motion.

Abstention – these votes will not count as “cast” votes.

a) If abstentions on guideline motions are equal to or greater than 20% of the number of voting members present, the motion will be sent back to home groups for a second consideration.

b) After the second group conscience attempt has been made, and the number of abstentions is still greater than 20% of the voting members, the area chair will move forward with the vote: a 2/3 vote is required to pass the guideline motion.

c) If abstentions on procedure motions are equal to or greater than 20% of the number of voting members present, the motions will be sent back to the motion maker for clarity.

d) If abstentions are less than 20% of the members voting, the motion defaults to the majority vote

e) Blank - A vote “not to vote” the member/group removes themselves from the final total of votes and goes with the conscience of the ASC.

4. Who can vote, make a motion, or second a motion:

a) GSRs can vote, make a motion, or second a motion.

b) Alt. GSRs can make a motion, second a motion, and vote if their GSR is not present.

c) A Member of NA present at ASC can make a motion but cannot vote or second a motion.

d) The motion and the intent of the motion must be written on a motion form by the motion maker and given to the vice-chairperson to be read on the area floor.

e) No GSR or Alt. GSR may cast more than one vote on any motion.

f) The area chairperson may vote only in the case of a tie for procedure motions but cannot vote on guideline motions. If there is a tie vote on a group conscience issue, the issue is sent back to home groups.

g) Any motion can be withdrawn before it is voted on by the person who originally made the motion. The person who seconded a motion can withdraw their second at any time, at which point, the motion must be seconded again by a GSR or duly elected Alt. GSR for the motion to be a live motion.

h) A motion made by a subcommittee is not required to be seconded. The Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, or a designated member of the subcommittee would act as the motion maker and can accept amendments to the motion.

i) A motion can be amended only with the permission of the motion maker. An amendment to a motion must be seconded by a GSR or a duly elected Alt. GSR. j) All motion makers must be present for the initial vote on the motion, and once the motion has been approved, it becomes the responsibility of the area.

5. How voting is conducted

Note: To limit any discussion on the area floor to a maximum of 5-8 minutes and to allow more than one person to ask questions, each person may only ask up to two questions per motion if time permits. If clarity has yet to arrive within the allotted timeframe, the motion is tabled and sent back for clarity. The chairperson is to appoint someone to keep track of the time.

a. Vice-Chairperson

- 1) Read the motion
- 2) Read the intent of the motion.

b. Chairperson

- 1) Asks if there are any questions on the motion.
- 2) The questions are to be answered by the chairperson or the motion maker unless otherwise directed by the chairperson.
- 3) The chairperson will ask for two pros and two cons on the motion. 4) Chairperson asks if there are any amendments to the motion
 - If there are any amendments, then back to step “a”.
 - If there are no amendments, continue with step “5”.
- 5) Chairperson asks if the GSRs are ready to vote:
 - If they are not ready, return to step “a”.
 - If they are ready, continue with step “c”.
 - a) A moment of silence is observed, and then the vote is taken. A guideline motion is voted on by closed ballot.
 - b) When the vote comes back from the home groups, there is no further discussion on the motion. A vote must be taken, but a new motion can be made to take the issue back to the home groups.
 - c) Only GSRs or duly elected Alternate GSRs (whose GSR is not present) may ask for a recount of the vote.

C. Nominations, Acceptance of Nominations, and Election of Nominees (Voting Procedures):

- 1) Trusted servants will announce two ASC meetings prior to their term end that their position will be open.
- 2) Nominations will start two months before the election. (see calendar of nominations, elections, and events) p.33
- 3) Nominations are only considered in the two months before the election unless there are no nominations; then, there will be nominations instead of an election in the scheduled election month or until the vacant position is filled.
- 4) For nominations from home groups, the GSRs will take the name of all open area and regional level trusted servant positions back to their home groups, inform the group members that these positions are open, and ask if anyone in the home group wishes to fill any of the open positions at the group’s business meeting. If so, then:
 - a) The person who accepts the nomination must be present at area service to accept the nomination on the area floor.
 - b) State his/her qualifications on the area floor.¹
 - c) Answer all questions on the area floor.
- 5) Nominations of area level trusted servants on the area service floor must also meet the following criteria:

- a) The person who accepts the nomination must be present at area service to accept the nomination on the area floor.
- b) State his/her qualifications on the area floor.
- c) Answer all questions on the area floor.

6. Acceptance of Nomination Procedures at Area Service:

1) The Chair asks: Are there any nominations for the open position(s)? If none, all open position(s) will be announced each month at area service until the position(s) is filled. If there are nominees, the chair continues as follows:

a) The Chair asks the nominee if he/she accepts the nomination; if the answer is No, the chair calls on the next nominee. When one accepts the nomination, the chair asks him/her to state his/her qualifications.

b) The Chair asks if there are any questions about the qualifications of the nominee.

c) After the questions and answers period, the chair asks the nominee to leave the room to allow for discussion, which includes objections. d) After receiving two pros and two cons on each nominee being considered for the position, a vote is taken to send the name of the nominee back to home groups for consideration of that position.

e) Call for the Vote, show of hands voting: "To Go Back to Home Groups".

- All in favor of the nomination going back to home groups for consideration for the area or regional level trusted servant position.

- All against the nomination going back to home groups for consideration for this area or regional level trusted servant position.
- All abstentions, those who choose not to vote on the nomination as well not count as cast votes.

- Blank votes--a vote not to vote--the group or meeting will allow the conscience of the area to represent their vote.

f) The chair will send back to home groups only the names of those nominees that the voting members present at the area service meeting have approved for consideration.

7. Elections of Nominees, Voting Procedures, Closed Ballot Voting, or Election by Acclamation:

1) Nominees must be present at area service on the day of the election to be voted into the area or regional level trusted servant position.

2) The chair announces the trusted servant position to be voted on and asks all nominee(s) for that position to leave the room.

3) The chair then asks if there is a point of information that would disqualify the nominee for this position.

4) On election day, when there is only one nominee, the nominee leaves the room, and the chairperson asks if there are any objections to electing this nominee by acclamation. If not, the nominee is elected by acclamation.

5) If there is an objection, the chair proceeds with a closed ballot vote for that area level trusted servant position.

6) To be elected, a simple majority vote by closed ballot is required. 7) If there are no previously approved nominee(s) for that position present during the election month, they voluntarily withdraw, or they disqualify themselves because they no longer meet the clean time requirement, a new nomination can be taken, considered, and sent back to home groups.

8) In the event a position becomes open, prior to the end of the trusted servant's term, the ASC chairperson may appoint someone pro-temp (to fulfill the term) for that trusted servant position or until a nominee is elected.

9) This decision may be waived by the chairperson, in which case, the ASC will request nominations from the home groups for the newly vacant position.

10) Upon election, all newly elected trusted servants will begin their terms at the end of that ASC.

8. Pro-temp Procedures

1) All vacant area level trusted servant positions not filled within the calendar of nominations and election dates will be pro-temp until the next nomination and election cycle.

2) Pro-temp trusted servant time does not count toward the one term of service commitment nor the two consecutive years of service in any one position.

Appendix A - Financial Policy

1) Retrieval of NA Funds

Theft of NA Funds:

- When the theft/mismanagement of NA funds/merchandise occurs at the area level, the area's chair will appoint an Ad-Hoc subcommittee to investigate the matter and suggest a course of action.
 - When the theft/mismanagement of NA funds/merchandise occurs at the group level, the home group is responsible for the retrieval of the group's funds/merchandise and may use this retrieval procedure and forms at the home group level.

- When a home group lacks the ability to retrieve NA funds/merchandise and ask the ASC for assistance in the retrieval, the area's chair or representative may assign the outreach subcommittee the task of assisting the group in the retrieval process.
- When a member of a home group or group asks the outreach subcommittee for assistance in the retrieval of group funds/merchandise, a report of such request will be included in both the group and outreach subcommittee reports at the next ASC meeting.

Retrieval Procedures:

A. Determining if theft has occurred:

1. A thorough review of all books and financial records should be conducted to make sure the funds were misappropriated.
2. How much? _____
3. By whom? _____
4. Determine the failure in the accounting procedures and safeguards that allowed this to happen?

B. If it becomes clear that theft/mismanagement has happened:

1. The group or service committee should schedule a meeting.
2. The person in question should promptly be informed of the meeting and given the opportunity to present his or her point of view.
3. There should be a format that allows everyone involved time to express their feelings and concerns. *See the Retrieval of NA Funds Meeting Format
4. After all sides have been heard, a break in the meeting format is encouraged to allow all present enough time to get in touch with their Higher Power.
5. After the break, the best course of action should be determined and taken.

C. If the individual admits to the theft and agrees to pay back the missing funds:

1. The Richmond Area of Narcotics Anonymous Contract for the Retrieval of NA Funds should be used.

2. Let the individual know that if the restitution agreement is not adhered to, legal action will be taken in accordance with the signed and witnessed restitution agreement.
3. A report about the situation and regular reports on the status of the restitution agreement should be published in the area's minutes from the group/committee reports until the agreement is satisfied.
4. Protecting the identity of the person involved is secondary to being accountable to the Fellowship for its funds/merchandise and ensuring that the person is not put in a position where he or she may do further harm.

5. It is best to remove the person from his or her service position and only consider the person for another position once he or she has dealt with the issue through the process of the Steps.

D. If the individual does not show up at the special meeting:

1. You will need to ensure that every effort to contact the person has been made.

2. Use registered mail to send a letter explaining that an audit of financial records has been performed, that facts show the individual is responsible for missing money, that repayment is expected, and what the consequences will be if the individual does not respond to the letter.

3. Copies of the letter should be put in a safe place for further reference.

4. If the individual's response to the letter is in a positive manner, you should return to section C and follow the procedures.

E. If the individual refuses to repay the money or agrees to a plan but does not follow through with agreement or if the person has disappeared, it may be appropriate to take legal action:

1. The decision to take legal action is an option that does not compromise traditions or spiritual principles but it should be our last resort.

2. It is suggested that the decision to prosecute be thoroughly explored before going ahead, using an area and regional service committees and world services resources.

3. If a decision to take legal action is reached, a member or members from the group, subcommittee, or service structure in which the theft occurred, not as a representative of NA, can take legal action on the behalf of the group, subcommittee, or service structure.

2. Bulletin #30 Theft of NA funds

The following paper was written in 1996 and revised in 2002 in response to a number of letters indicating that theft of NA funds is a recurring issue in our fellowship. In preparing this paper, we have relied on the experience of many Groups, Area and Regional Service committees, convention corporations, and Service Services as shared with us in correspondence and at workshops on the issue. We encourage you to make use of this valuable and often painfully learned experience in your management of NA funds. Substantial donations are contributed by the NA Fellowship every year. These funds are given by NA members who trust that they will somehow help other addicts get clean. While this money is precious, the member's trust is even more so. We need to keep the image of that one member and that one donation in mind whenever we make decisions about handling NA's money.

Most of NA's money gets where it is supposed to go. NA members serving in positions of financial responsibility for the fellowship volunteer countless hours to make sure everything adds up. Services such as local phonelines are paid for; literature is purchased and available to members at Meetings; tens of thousands of Meetings take place every week in rooms for which NA pays rent. Many individual Trusted Servants follow guidelines and pass on funds that are used to further our primary purpose. All of these things happen because NA communities utilize responsible accounting practices.

SAFEGUARDING FUNDS

Theft can be avoided by consistently and diligently following responsible financial principles and practices. The pain and conflict caused when one of our members steals from us, as well as the loss of funds that might have gone to help the still-suffering addict, point to our responsibility to prevent theft from happening in the first place.

Most theft of fellowship funds occurs when precautionary measures are not in place or are in place but not used. Some of us have hesitated to either institute or use these measures because they make us uncomfortable--we believe that they are somehow insulting to the people we ask to Serve, or they seem too troublesome to follow. However, the very best safeguard against theft is to remove the opportunity to steal. It is far more uncomfortable and troublesome to deal with a theft after it has taken place than to take measures to prevent it from happening in the first place.

SELECTING TRUSTED SERVANTS

Our Fourth Concept tells us how to select our Trusted Servants: "Effective leadership is highly valued in Narcotics Anonymous. Leadership qualities should be carefully considered when selecting Trusted Servants."

So, what exactly are these "leadership qualities" the Fourth Concept tells us to look for? Honesty, integrity, maturity, and stability, both in recovery and in personal finances, are but a few. We often avoid asking questions regarding the financial stability of those we are considering for these types of positions, because those questions may be uncomfortable for us or we somehow feel they are inappropriate, given the spiritual nature of our program. We sometimes ignore evidence that a person is having a difficult time with his or her personal finances and should not have the additional burden of responsibility for NA's money. Not only is it okay to ask members standing for election about their qualifications in these areas, it is irresponsible not to.

Substantial clean time and financial stability should be required for positions where money is handled. Many NA communities have found it helpful to develop a list of questions regarding employment, Service experience, experience with handling funds, and financial stability. These questions are then asked of all nominees as a matter of course, so that people do not feel singled out based on personalities.

RESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT

"NA funds are to be used to further our primary purpose, and must be managed responsibly." Our Eleventh Concept points out how very important NA funds are. In keeping with the spiritual principles of this concept, guidelines regarding the handling of funds should be developed and adhered to. The guidelines should include both recognized accounting practices and procedures that ensure the accountability of our Trusted Servants.

The Treasurer's Handbook is an excellent resource for Groups and Service Committees to use in instituting accounting procedures. All guidelines should include appropriate safeguards, such as monthly reporting, regular audits, two signature checking accounts, and monthly reconciliation of original bank statements. For Groups without checking accounts, many of these practices can still be incorporated into the handling of NA funds.

To paraphrase one of our sayings, an addict alone with NA money is in bad company. It is critically important that all processes be monitored by another person: two people count receipts; two people make the bank deposit (and this should be done immediately, not the following day); two people reconcile the original bank statements; and most importantly, two people are always present when any funds are disbursed. Financial records should be readily available to other Trusted Servants. It is important to note that other assets, such as convention merchandise, literature, and Service equipment, should be treated as carefully as money. Financial procedures need to be written into guidelines to require a review and signature of those responsible for handling funds before they are put into positions of responsibility. Members who know they will be held to standardized accounting and auditing procedures will most likely behave in a responsible manner. Include a statement that theft will not be tolerated, and outline the process that will be followed if a theft occurs. If you are unsure about how to write adequate financial guidelines, please contact the World Service for assistance.

WHEN SAFEGUARDS FAIL

If we develop and follow these procedures, we will make it almost impossible for anyone to misappropriate or steal NA funds. If someone does steal from us, the first question we should ask is one of ourselves: Did we adhere to all of our accounting procedures and safeguards? If the answer is no, we as a Service Committee also bear substantial responsibility for the theft. We will want to review our procedures to ensure that they are complete and resolve to adhere to them in the future. But suppose the answer is yes, we followed our guidelines to the letter. We did everything in our power to prevent a theft, and someone stole from us anyway. When this happens, there is often a mixture of reactions, ranging from, "Let's forgive and forget;" after all, we're addicts who are prone to acting out on our disease. We don't want to run the individual out of Meetings and into a possible relapse, to "Let's throw the thief in jail!" But whatever it is, we don't want our initial emotional reaction to dictate the outcome of the situation.

Our program of recovery provides every member with an opportunity to behave responsibly in difficult situations and make amends. We are closest to the spiritual principles of our program when we begin to deal with a theft by encouraging the member who has stolen funds to make amends, which can then provide healing for all involved. This is not to say that the disappearance of NA funds should be taken lightly or that a Service Committee should sit and passively wait for a member who has stolen funds to be moved to make amends. We instead encourage a process that is both responsible and spiritual; taking steps of increasing severity should they prove necessary.

First of all, a thorough review of all books and financial records should be conducted to make sure the funds were actually misappropriated. How much? By whom? What failing in the accounting procedures and safeguards allowed this to happen?

If it becomes clear that money has indeed been taken, the group or Service Committee should then schedule a meeting, making absolutely sure the individual(s) who took the money is informed of the meeting and given the opportunity to present his or her point of view. At this meeting, there should be a format that allows time for everyone involved to express his or her feelings and concerns. This allows everyone to give his or her input and may also allow a "defusing process" to occur. After all sides have been heard, a break in the meeting format is encouraged to allow all present enough time to get in touch with their own Higher Power and focus on spiritual principles, before coming back to decide the best course of action. If the individual admits to the theft and agrees to pay back the missing funds, a restitution agreement can be developed. Such an agreement can include regular payments at any interval acceptable to all involved, though it is best not to drag out the process unnecessarily. Most agreements specify regular weekly or monthly payments until the full amount is repaid. We strongly suggest drafting a legally binding document, utilizing legal advice if possible, and having it signed and witnessed. Let the individual know that if the restitution agreement is not adhered to, you intend to take legal action based on the signed and witnessed restitution agreement. A report about the situation should be published, and regular reports on the status of the restitution agreement should be published until the agreement is satisfied. Protecting the identity of the person involved is secondary to being accountable to the fellowship for its funds and ensuring that the person is not put in a position where he or she may do further harm. Again, balancing spirituality with responsibility, we have found that it is best to remove the individual from his or her Service position and not consider the person for another position until he or she has dealt with the issue through the process of the steps.

If the individual does not appear at the special meeting, you will need to ensure that every effort to contact the person has been made. Use registered mail to send a letter explaining that an audit of financial records has been performed, that facts show the individual is responsible for missing money, that repayment is expected, and what the consequences will be if the individual does not respond to the letter. Copies of the letter should be put in a safe place for further reference. This may seem severe, but if the previous steps have been taken without result, sometimes something this harsh is the impetus that encourages the individual to make restitution. If the individual refuses to repay the money, or agrees to a plan but does not follow through with the agreement, or if the person has disappeared, it may be appropriate to take legal action. The decision to take legal action is an option that does not compromise traditions or spiritual principles, but it should be our last resort, opted for only when everything else has been tried. We strongly suggest that the decision to prosecute be thoroughly explored before going ahead, using Area and Regional Service Committees and world Services as resources.

RESOLUTION AND RECOVERY

Even if a successful resolution is reached, many of us will still be angry and hurt and may want to shun the person involved. Although this is understandable, we have to remind ourselves that NA's primary purpose is to carry the message to the addict who still suffers. We also need to remember that our disease will surface if we are not diligently working a program of recovery. As NA members practicing spiritual principles, we should all support the individual in continuing his or her recovery, utilizing Meetings, a sponsor, and the Twelve Steps. We should offer the same love and support we would to someone who has relapsed by using drugs. The misappropriation of NA funds affects Groups, Service committees, and world Services in their efforts to carry the message to the still-suffering addict. The process necessary to deal with such incidents typically has long-term effects, conflict between members, disunity, and disillusioned members--on any NA community, directly affecting the newcomer. The safeguards recommended in this bulletin not only protect our funds, but also protect us from our disease. We implore NA communities worldwide to develop and follow procedures that protect NA funds; doing so will keep our future secure.

SAMPLE RULES OF ORDER

On the following pages, you'll find a simple set of rules of order. They have been adapted from Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, which in turn are based on the Rules of the US House of Representatives. These sample rules differ in some details from Robert's Rules; to cover such differences, your committee may wish to make a blanket decision to accept these rules as authoritative. In countries where Robert's Rules of Order are not in common use and where some other body of parliamentary rules is more commonly used by deliberative assemblies, Service Committees may want to consider adapting these rules so that they conform to those commonly in use in their own lands.

DECORUM STATEMENT

Meetings will be conducted according to these rules of order, adapted from Robert's Rules of Order. This time-honored system for conducting business is the clearest way yet devised for getting a maximum amount of business done in a minimum of time, regardless of the degree of disagreement among participants. These rules are meant to be used as tools to help us make orderly collective decision in a cooperative, respectful way in the spirit of our Twelve Concepts; please do not use them as weapons against one another. We encourage all participants to become familiar with these rules of order and conduct themselves accordingly. Once the meeting is under way, only one matter will be before the Committee at any one time and no other discussion is in order. Please respect the Chairperson's right to be in control of the process of this meeting so that you can have maximum benefit of its content.

DEBATE, LIMITS

Debate is the formal exchange of views on an idea. Unless otherwise specified, debate on both main motions and parliamentary motions is usually limited to two or three pros and two or three cons (speakers for and against the motion). Speakers addressing a motion in debate usually have two or three minutes in which to speak their minds.

MOTIONS

There are two basic types of motions. It is important to understand the difference between them. The two kinds of motions are main motions and parliamentary motions.

MAIN MOTIONS

A motion is a statement of an idea a committee member wants the committee to put into practice. After being recognized by the Chairperson, the member says, "I move that such and such be done by (this committee, one of its Subcommittees, or a particular individual) under these terms.”

The person making the motion then speaks briefly about why he or she feels the idea is important; this is called speaking to the intent of a motion. Because the exact wording of all motions must be recorded in the minutes, the maker of the motion should write it out whenever possible. This is especially important for long or complicated motions.

Every motion requires a second—the backing of another person who either wants the idea put into practice or simply wants to see further discussion of the idea take place.

After one person makes a motion, the Chairperson will ask whether the motion has a second.

The secondary simply raises a hand and, when recognized by the Chair, says, “I second that.” If nobody seconds a motion, the Chair will say, “The motion dies for lack of a second.” This means that the idea will not be discussed any further because there is not enough interest in it. The Committee then moves on other business.

Once a motion has been made, the Chairperson may rule it out of order. A motion may be ruled out of order for any one of a number of reasons: the motion goes against the committee’s standing policy, clearly contradicts one of the Twelve Traditions or Twelve Concepts for NA Service, or is inappropriate at the particular point in the meeting at which it is made. Robert’s Rules of Order can be consulted for more specific examples of motions, which are out of order at any given time. Any member of the Committee who wished to challenge a ruling made by the Chairperson may appeal that ruling, as described below. If no appeal is made, or if the decision of the Chair is upheld, the Committee moves on to other business.

PARLIAMENTARY MOTIONS

Parliamentary motions can be best understood as “sub-motions” made during debate on a main motion that affect that motion in some way. There are many more of these than space practicality permits us to include here, but a few that seem to be the most practical are discussed below:

1. Motion to AMEND

Simple majority required Is debatable

This is perhaps the most commonly used parliamentary motion. During debate on a motion, if a member feels that the motion would benefit from a change in its language, that member can say “I move to amend the motion...” and suggest specific language changes in the motion. Ordinarily, an amendment must be moved and seconded before it can be debated.

When debate on the amendment is exhausted, the body votes on the amendment. Then, debate resumes on the merits of the main motion (as amended, if the amendment has carried). When debate is exhausted on the merits of the main motion itself, a vote is taken and the body moves on to the next item of business.

If an amendment is offered and the persons making and seconding the original motion accept it, no second is required, no debate is called for and no vote need be taken on the amendment' debate proceeds as if the main motion had been formally amended. This is called making a friendly amendment.

2. Motion to call the PREVIOUS QUESTION

Two-thirds majority required Is not debatable

For our purposes, this may be the most important parliamentary motion.

Use it often. This motion is made by a member saying, "I call for the question," or "I move the previous question." It is another way of saying, "I move that debate stop right now and that we vote immediately." This is one of many motions that can be used to prevent needless, lengthy debate once an issue is clearly understood. This motion is in order after any speaker is finished. You need not vote must be taken with no debate. If two-thirds of the body feels that no more debate is necessary, then it is time to vote and move on. One point worth making about this motion is that you must be careful not to squelch debate before an issue has been thoroughly aired. Be sure to vote "no" to this motion is you are still confused about the issue at hand or are unsure of how to vote. By allowing debate to continue, we avoid half-bake decisions about half-understood questions. On the other hand, the liberal use of this motion makes it unnecessary for the Chair to be heavy-handed in stopping discussion, because the Chair knows you will stop it soon enough.

3. Motion to TABLE

Simple majority required Is not debatable

One way of disposing of a motion that is not ready for a vote is to table it.

This is done by saying, "I move we table this motion until such-and-such a date/meeting." This motion is not debatable; if it is made and seconded, it is voted on immediately. If it fails, debate continues on the motion itself. If it passes, the Committee moves on to its next item of business. The tabled motion will be included in the Committee agenda on the date specified.

4. Motion to REMOVE FROM THE TABLE

Simple majority is required Is debatable

A motion that has been tabled can be taken up before the time originally set in the motion to table. This is done by saying, "I move to remove from the table the motion to such-and-such." If this motion passes, the motion that had been tabled becomes the main motion and debate on it begins again. If the motion to remove from the table fails, the body moves on to the next item of business.

5. Motion to REFER

Simple majority is required Is debatable

Sometimes the Committee does not have enough information to make an immediate decision on a main motion. Such motions can be removed from debate and sent to either a standing subcommittee or an ad hoc committee for further study. This can be done by a member saying, "I move to refer the motion to the such-and-such subcommittee." If the motion to refer is seconded, the body may debate it before voting. If the motion to refer passes, the Committee moves on to its next item of business. If the motion to refer does not pass, the committee either continues debating the main motion or votes on it. The subcommittee to which a motion is referred will take it up at its next meeting. The subcommittee will report on what it has come up with at the next meeting of the full committee.

6. Motions to RECONSIDER or RESCIND

Majority required varies Is debatable

Sometimes a member feels that a motion the Committee has passed will prove harmful. That member can move to either reconsider (reopen for debate and voting) or rescind (void the effect of) the original motion.

There are a few conditions on motions to reconsider or rescind the motion must have been passed in either the last or the current meeting

The member making the motion must have information on the issue that was not available in the original debate on the motion

The member must have been with the winning side in the original vote

These limits are placed to protect the Committee from having to reconsider again and again the motions it passes while still allowing it to examine potentially harmful situations it has created inadvertently. If any of these requirements are not met, the Chairperson will declare the motion out of order. The motion to reconsider requires a simple majority.

The motion to rescind requires a simple majority, provided that Committee members were informed prior to the meeting that such a motion would be made. If prior notice is not given, the motion to rescind requires a two-thirds majority.

7. Request to WITHDRAW A MOTION

Unanimous consent required Is not debatable

Once a motion is made and the debate begins, the maker of the motion may ask to withdraw it. The Chair asks if there are any objections. If there are any objections, if there is even one objection, the motion stays on the floor and debate resumes. If there are no objections, the motion is withdrawn and the body moves on.

8. Offering a SUBSTITUTE MOTION

Simple majority is required Is debatable

A substitute motion is the same thing as an amendment to a main motion. The only difference is that it is offered to entirely replace the original idea, instead of merely revising a portion of it. It is handled in the same way an amendment is handled.

9. Motion to ADJOURN

Simple majority required Is not debatable

Any voting member may move to adjourn at any time. This motion is always in order, is not debatable, and requires a simple majority to pass. Obviously frivolous motions to adjourn may be ruled out of order. After all business is finished, the Chair may declare the meeting adjourned without a motion.

OTHER PROCEDURES

In addition to parliamentary motions, there are other ways in which members may alter or clarify the proceedings. Here are a few of the most common.

Order of the day

If a committee member feels that business is going too far astray from the original agenda, that member can help get things back on track. The member says, "I call for order of the day." This means, "I move that the Chair bring us back on track and conduct the meeting according to procedure, adhering to the agenda." This does not require a second, is not debatable and does not even require a vote-the Chairperson is obligated to enforce the request unless two-thirds of the body tells the Chair otherwise.

Point of Information

If a committee member needs certain information before making a decision about a motion at hand, that member can say at any time to the Chairperson, "Point of Information." This means, "I have information to offer." One does not need a second to raise a point of information; it is neither debatable nor to be voted upon. The person raising the point of information may ask the question of either the Chairperson or another member of the body

Point of order

If it appears to a committee member that something is happening in violation of the rules of order and if the Chairperson has not yet done anything about it, the member can ask the Chairperson for clarification of the rules at any time. The member may simply say out loud, "Point of order." The Chairperson then says, "What is your point of order?" The member then states the question and asks the Chairperson for clarification. If the Chair agrees that the rules are not being followed, the Chair says, "Your point is well taken" and restate the appropriate rule. If the Chair does not agree, the Chair says, "Overruled." This decision, as all others, can be appealed.

Point of appeal

Any time the Chair makes a decision, that decision may be appealed. Any voting member who wishes to appeal a decision may do so by saying, "I appeal the decision of the Chair." If the appeal is seconded, the Chair then asks, “On what grounds do you appeal my decision?” The member states the reasons. That Chairperson then speaks briefly to the intent of the ruling being appealed. The body may then debate the ruling and the merits of the appeal. A vote is taken, requiring a simple majority to overrule the original decision of the Chairperson.

Parliamentary inquiry

If a committee member wants to do something but doesn’t know how it fits in with the rules of order, all that member has to do is ask. At any time, a member may simply say out loud, “Point of parliamentary inquiry.” The Chairperson must immediately recognize the member so that person may ask how to do such-and such. The Chair will answer the question, possibly by referring to a specific passage in this document in explanation. A point of parliamentary inquiry needs no second, is not debatable, and is not voted upon.

Point of personal privilege

If the smoke is getting too heavy for you, the air conditioner or heater is on too high, or if there is too much noise in the room, you can ask that something be done about it. If the matter is urgent, you may interrupt the proceedings by saying, “Point of personal privilege” if the matter is not particularly urgent, you are encouraged to wait until the person speaking has finished. Such a request generally requires no second and the Chairperson must recognize you immediately. State the situation and ask that it be corrected. If your request seems reasonable, the Chair will accommodate you.

VOTING PROCEDURES

There are several ways that votes can be taken. The most commonly used method is the show of hands. With rare exceptions, votes will be taken by a request from the Chair to see the hands of all in favor, then all opposed, then all abstaining on each issue. The Chairperson should ask for all three categories every time, just to be thorough, even when the majority is overwhelming

Appendix D - 12 Traditions and 12 Concepts

Twelve Traditions of Narcotics Anonymous

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends on NA unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority- a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but Trusted Servants; they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop using.
4. Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other Groups or NA as a whole.
5. Each group has but one primary purpose—to carry the message to the addict who still suffers.
6. An NA group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the NA name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property, or prestige divert us from our primary purpose.
7. Every NA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.
8. Narcotics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our Service centers may employ special workers.
9. NA, as such, ought never be organized, but we may create Service boards or Committees directly responsible to those they Serve.
10. Narcotics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence, the NA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, and films.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

Twelve Concepts for NA Service

1. To fulfill our fellowship's primary purpose, the NA Groups have joined together to create a structure which develops, coordinates, and maintains Services on behalf of NA as a whole.
2. The final responsibility and authority for NA Services rests with the NA Groups.
3. The NA Groups delegate to the Service structure the authority necessary to fulfill the responsibilities assigned to it.
4. Effective leadership is highly valued in Narcotics Anonymous. Leadership qualities should be carefully considered when selecting Trusted Servants.
5. For each responsibility assigned to the Service structure, a single point of decision and accountability should be clearly defined.
6. Group conscience is the spiritual means by which we invite a loving God to influence our decisions.
7. All members of a Service body bear substantial responsibility for that body's decisions and should be allowed to fully participate in its decision-making processes.
8. Our Service structure depends on the integrity and effectiveness of our communications.
9. All elements of our Service structure have the responsibility to carefully consider all viewpoints in their decision-making processes.
10. Any member of a Service body can petition that body for the redress of a personal grievance, without fear of reprisal.
11. NA funds are to be used to further our primary purpose, and must be managed responsibly.
12. In keeping with the spiritual nature of Narcotics Anonymous, our structure should always be one of Service, never of government.
